

Carta a los Reyes Magos

Write a letter to the Three Kings, just like children in Spain

The tradition

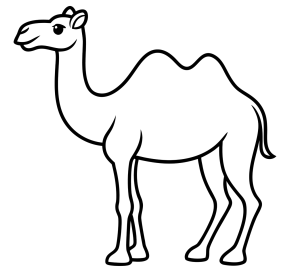

In Spain, the big gift day is not Christmas but January 6th, el Día de Reyes. In December, children write a letter to los Reyes Magos (Melchor, Gaspar and Baltasar), the three kings who followed the star. On the night of January 5th they leave their shoes out, with water and a little hay for the camels. In the morning, the gifts are there!

What's inside

- 1 Page 2: the letter to fill in. Read each line together and write your answers.
- 2 Page 3: a letter for little ones: just draw three wishes and sign your name.
- 3 Page 4: a word bank with gift words in Spanish to copy into your letter.

Make it magic

- Put the letter in an envelope and "mail" it in a shoe by the window.
- On January 5th, leave out your shoes, a bowl of water and some hay (or grass) for the camels.
- Share a roscón de Reyes on January 6th. Whoever finds the little surprise inside is king or queen for the day!
