How to use: read the word together, trace the dotted letters, then color the picture! Halloween is October 31. Read each word together before coloring, then go on a spooky search around the house: can you find a gato, a calabaza or some dulces? Point to each syllable as your child reads it out loud: ca-la-ba-za. The syllable breaks under each picture above show where to pause. No Spanish needed: the ¡A LEER! books and free audio at espanolforkids.org teach every sound.
